

Hopes & Dreams

26 September 2007

How the past shaped the present,
which moulds the future

What

An invitation to a Celebration of the working life of the City of Liverpool.

A time to reflect on past achievements of commerce, business and industry, and the shaping of the present.

An opportunity to voice our hopes and dreams for the future.

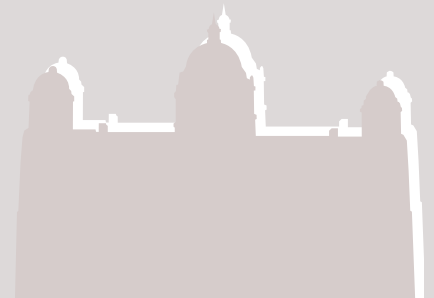

A unique event bringing together business delegates, and young people from our local communities, in a fresh engagement of culture, ideas, experiences and aspirations

Venue

The Great Space of Liverpool's Anglican Cathedral, St. James Mount

- See the city as you've never seen it before
- Bring your family
- Enjoy food, music, film and displays
- Hear the words from the past echoing across the centuries
- Be inspired as we look to the future

When

Wednesday September 26th

- The Sights of Liverpool from 4.30pm & Tower for Free
- Food available from 5.30pm.
- Film, music and displays
- Hopes and dreams
- Son et Lumi ne
- Finish at 8.30pm

RSVP
tracy.lyons@nwblt.co.uk

closing date for responses is 14/9/07

tel: 01925 212 078

Supported by